This Week's Chicken Feature Highlights

Incentives to purchase climbs higher, other market indicators drop marginally. The overall amount of poultry remains fairly stable. Whole birds as a category drops slightly, prices drop on bagged fryers while cut-up fryers inches slightly higher. Regular pack b/s breast, split breast and tenders push a price increase, bulk packs are your best deal, especially on split breasts. Dark meat reduces volumes, pricing moves around looking for the right combination. IQF pushes big ticket items and lowers prices. The deli is ready to feed Mom and graduates, pricing climb slightly. Specialty items volumes drop slightly while organics remain about the same. The middle of the month is almost here, ad activity should be similar to the beginning. Looking ahead, the first holiday of the summer season is close, be ready for retail activity to pick up on all meat items.

All report information gathered from publicly available sources including store circulars, newspaper ads, and retailer websites.

^{1/} Feature Rate: the amount of sampled stores advertising any reported chicken item during the current week, expressed as a percentage of the total sample. ^{2/} Activity Index: a measure of the absolute frequency of feature activity equal to the total number of stores for each advertised chicken item (e.g., a retailer with 100 outlets featuring 3 chicken items has an activity index of 300). ^{3/} Stores/Avg: the total number of advertising outlets and the weighted average price weighted by the respective number of outlets. ^{4/} Special Rate: the percentage of sampled stores with a no-price promotion (e.g., buy 1, get 1 free, etc.)
