Dry buttermilk prices moved 1 cent lower for the top of the range and mostly price series in the West. The bottom of the range and mostly price series are unchanged. Domestic demand is lighter. Demand from international buyers is steady. Dry buttermilk production schedules vary from steady to lighter. In some parts of the region lighter butter production schedules are decreasing liquid and/or condensed buttermilk volumes for drying purposes. That said, stakeholders indicate contractual obligations are continuing to be met, but spot load availability is on the tight end. A few contacts note a major confectionary ingredient is ticking down in price and that will positively contribute to dry buttermilk demand from confectionary producers.

Prices for: Western U.S., All First Sales, F.O.B., Conventional, and Edible Buttermilk

Price Range ; $/LB:	1.1700 - 1.2600
