Cattle auctions are starting to wrap up for the fall and spring runs with most auctions going to every other week or longer between their next special sales. Rains and snow across the cornhusker state this last week bringing much needed moisture to the sandhills and other areas. If the thermometer wouldn't dip below freezing it would be beneficial for all outdoor crops. Feedlots traded cash show list a 1.00 higher on live and dressed sales from 123.00-124.00 and 196.00 respectively.
