Quality was average to very attractive. Several very long strings of lambs were on offer this week and these partial loads were met with good demand. All lambs on offer returned to feed this sale. Demand did diminish as the sale waned and buyers filled loads. Lambs continue to come off of range in very light flesh and as a result, weigh up conditions on lambs was very attractive to buyers. Market activity this sale was moderate to active. Slaughter ewes sold on moderate to good demand, and was noticeably stronger than last sale. Fleishy ewes sold with the best demand as drought conditions have very few available to buyers. Good ewes sold mostly 7.00-9.00 higher. Utility and cull ewes sold 1.00-4.00 higher. Slaughter bucks sold steady to weak. Slaughter kids sold unevenly steady. Feeding kids sold with higher undertones in a narrow comparison. Demand for feeding kids remains strong with several ranchers bidding on lightweight kids suitable to feed. Public auction yards moved the Annual Breeding ram special to Sunday afternoon (9/12/21). These offerings are included in todays sale total and are in the report below. Demand for breeding rams was good to very good.
